

PORTLAND HOUSE

—❖— Weddings —❖—

Firstly, let us take this opportunity to congratulate you on your forthcoming wedding.

The team at Portland House love nothing more than working with couples to ensure that their dreams of their big day are realised, and this is why we take extra time to get to know you and are able to work closely with you to help you decide on the fundamentals of your day including menu choices, décor and room layout.

At Portland House, we understand that your wedding should be as unique as you are, and so our experienced events team go above and beyond to ensure that each and every wedding package created is truly bespoke and personal to each couple.

Portland House History

Situated in the heart of Cardiff Bay, a newly developed cosmopolitan peninsula in the south of the Welsh Capital, Portland House holds one of Cardiff's best kept luxury secrets.

Formerly the old Natwest Bank, The Banking Hall, steeped in history, has since been redeveloped and granted Grade II listed status, proudly boasting many of its original features including wonderfully ornate marble pillars, a large arched glass ceiling and 19th century inspired glass chandeliers.

Venue Specifications

This space is the perfect backdrop to your big day thanks to its grand size and proud décor, but is versatile enough to reflect any couple's personality or theme with subtle colour additions, accessories and props.

The experienced events team at Portland House are happy to advise you on the finer details of your day; we work alongside only the best wedding vendors and can source excellent items for your day at competitive prices. We can be involved in as much or as little of the organisation of the day as you wish; the important part of this special day truly is the requirements of you, your family and friends.

Portland House is proud to be able to accommodate weddings for all cultures, faiths and religions, and can ensure the most important day of your life creates beautiful lasting memories for you as well as your guests.
